INSTITUTE SCHOLARSHIP POLICY

Sumathi Reddy Institute of Technology for Women is committed to the objectives of attracting and supporting high-caliber women students in higher education. The college was established in 2009 with the main objective of women's empowerment through education. Scholarships are provided by the institute, government and non-government organizations, and philanthropists so that no student is denied an opportunity due to financial incapacity. Scholarships are awarded to students based on need and also to talented students. The procedure for granting scholarships by the management is clearly defined in the institution's scholarship policy. The scholarship is directly handover to the student by the awarding authority or in cases where the amount is credited to the institution; it is immediately implemented.

Note: The scholarship will remain in effect until the student completes the course.
